Directors Corner

Happy New Year! I hope you and your family had a restful and healthy winter break! I am excited to get back into the school routine.

The New Year brings about changes and new goals for most adults. Parents of preschool age children are making plans for next school year! January is registration month at Jack and Jill! Believe it or not the time has come to choose a program for your child for the 2024-2025 school year!

It can feel overwhelming to choose the “right” class for your child. Please feel free to chat with your child’s teacher and seek their input with the decision. I will also be hosting 2 registration overviews. The evening session will be on Tuesday, January 9th 6:30-7:30 PM and the day time session will be on Thursday, January 11th 9:00-10 AM to explain the differences of our 3 and 4 year old programs. The evening session is for parents only, please.

Although we advertise throughout the area, YOU and your experience is the most important in recruiting new families to our program. Please take a few moments to spread the word and let people know what you like about our program! I am available for personal tours for your friends, families and acquaintances when it suits their schedule. It is not uncommon for me to provide weekend, and evening tours of the program.

Warm regards,
Mrs. Lay
